WALTON SUPPORTERS SPRING SURPRISE!

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY MEET CONSIDERING PROBLEMS OF CHURCH

Morning Session Consisted Principally of Reports and Discussions of Work—Delegates Were Served Luncheon at Methodist Tabernacle, College, Tuesday and in Bryan Wednesday Noon.

The morning session of the Woman's Home Missionary Society now in convention at the Methodist church consisted largely of the reports of delegates, a discussion of work of the district and a discussion of departmental work, such as that of social service, young people's junior and senior societies, rural church work, etc. Mrs. N. W. Wycough of Madisonville presided. Mrs. J. N. Goodwin led the devotional exercises. Mrs. S. E. Eberstadt gave a report on the adult society of Bryan, and Mrs. T. A. Adams reported for the juniors. Mrs. C. L. Sawyer and Mrs. W. N. Underwood of Madisonville gave reports for the adult and junior societies of Madisonville. The night session will consist of talks on the work by delegates, led by Mrs. P. T. Ramsey of Huntsville.

NOON DAY LUNCHEON

The delegates were served lunch today at the Baptist Tabernacle at 12:00 o'clock. Mrs. J. N. Goodwin being toastmistress. Talks were made by Rev. H. C. Willis, Dr. John A. Held, Mrs. J. Coy Williams of Caldwell, and Mrs. N. M. Wycough of Madisonville. The three visiting district officers were presented arm bouquets of white Queen chrysanthemums, Mrs. N. M. Wycough of Madisonville, Mrs. J. Coy Williams of Caldwell, and Mrs. C. B. Farrington of Huntsville being the recipients. Presentation speeches were made by Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. R. O. Allen and Mrs. M. B. Bentley.

Reception at A. and M.

The reception at the Methodist Tabernacle, College, at 5 o'clock p. m. Tuesday was quite a pleasant affair, according to Mrs. King Vivion. Those in the receiving committee at the Tabernacle were: Mrs. W. B. Bizzell, Mrs. F. A. Beuchel, Mrs. A. Stone, Mrs. W. F. Thomas, Mrs. B. F. Harrison, Mrs. S. G. Bailey, Mrs. J. R. McKee, Mrs. J. L. Dickey, and Rev. and Mrs. King Vivion. Rev. King Vivion made a brief talk on the work of the Methodists at College and the need for the Tabernacle. Light refreshments were served. The delegates were treated to a drive about the campus, a sight of the corps in formation at "retreat," and were then brought back to Bryan. Luncheon was again served to delegates today, this time at the Baptist Tabernacle in Bryan.

Delegates in Attendance.

Visiting delegates in attendance at the convention so far, according to Mrs. S. E. Eberstadt, are as follows: Miss Fannie Elkins, Huntsville; Mesdames C. L. Sawyer, Madisonville; Erin Burtis, Madisonville; M. R. Talley, Conroe; T. A. Byers, Madisonville; S. J. Blocker, Dallas; G. A. Sims, Bedias; J. C. Griffin, Bedias; C. H. Calloway, Crockett; I. E. Brooks, Caldwell; Ira M. Camp, Navasota; D. W. Largent, Navasota; Hal Camp, Navasota; M. E. Parker, Navasota; Robert Grace, Navasota; N. M. Wycough, Madisonville; J. Coy Williams, Caldwell; C. B. Farrington, Huntsville; Miss Frances Lenke, Navasota, and Rev. J. Coy Williams, Caldwell.

ARRANGEMENT MADE FOR THREE COUNTY NEGRO INSTITUTE

George Barron, county superintendent of Grimes county, Richard Goodman, county superintendent of Robertson county, and D. J. McDonald, county superintendent of Brazos county, met at the Court House Monday afternoon and arranged for a tri-county negro teachers' institute to be held here the week before Christmas, according to Superintendent McDonald. They also made permanent arrangement for such an institute annually, the gathering hereafter to be held in Bryan the first week in September at the same time the tri-county institute for white teachers is being held at College Station.

READING CLUB WILL CREATE AND MAINTAIN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The weekly meeting of the Reading club was held Tuesday afternoon at Carnegie Library with Mrs. A. A. Lenert, the president, presiding, and Miss Ruth Lawler, recording secretary, at the desk.

In the regular business session, preceding the program of the day, the club voted to create and maintain a scholarship fund and Mesdames E. O. Edison, C. M. Bethany, A. P. Swallow and T. B. Bryan were appointed as a committee to formulate plans for same. Miss Kathleen Sims, vice president, was unanimously elected to represent the Reading Club at the annual meeting of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs held in Wichita Falls November 13 to 17.

The subject of the days program was the novel "Cytherea" by Joseph Hergesheimer. Mrs. E. O. Edison, in a very capable manner, acted as leader and Mrs. Dora Wilson gave interesting facts concerning the author.

Short but entertaining talks were given by Mrs. Lamar Jones on the "Real Purpose of the Novel," and by Miss Nina Henry on the "Hidden Purpose of the Novel," after which a general discussion was entered upon by those present, including: Mesdames C. M. Bethany, H. R. Brayton, J. S. Caldwell, G. L. Crawford, E. O. Edison, Sterling Evans, A. P. Swallow, Lamar Jones, Mal Hall, Ralph Ware, Fred Jones, A. A. Lennert, J. T. S. Park, Dora Wilson, G. R. Warren and Misses Nina Henry and Ruth Lawler.

POWER PLANT BREAKS ALL EARLIER RECORDS

The city power plant broke all records in the month of September 20 to October 20 for the generation and delivery of electric current, according to City Manager E. E. McAdams. The power delivered in October was 117,049 kilowatts, or an increase of 12,000 kilowatts over any previous month, he said. But while the use of electricity for October made the jump named, the water consumption of the city showed a marked decrease as compared with September. The use of electricity for lights always goes up in the winter and the consumption of water comes down, Mr. McAdams explained, while in the spring the process is reversed.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS WIN GOOD MONEY ON YELLOW DENT CORN

(From Thursday's Daily). A message to County Agent C. L. Beason from R. W. Persons, in charge of the Boys' Educational Encampment at Dallas State Fair, brings welcome news that Brazos county club boys have won "some good money on their Yellow Dent corn" in the State Fair contest. It will be remembered that Waldon Orr of Edge won first place last year on Yellow Dent corn. Mr. Persons also states in his message that I. W. Hill, in charge of Boys' Club Work, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., will likely be in Bryan Tuesday, October 23, for the purpose of visiting Brazos county clubs. Mr. Hill will probably be given an opportunity of visiting Tabor, Edge and Kurten clubs.

AUTO LICENSES PAST WEEK BRAZOS COUNTY

The following automobile licenses have been issued in Brazos county in the course of the past week: J. Conway, O. A. Hanko, J. L. Callaway, H. Jones, Fred L. Cavitt, M. B. Parker, Antonio Blazek, Buster Williams, Sam Maighetta, John F. McGill, Joe W. Sikorske, W. G. Henderson, Miss Julia Parzek, Arthur L. Smith, Tony Piccolo, L. E. Dowd, R. W. Warren, Mose Johnson, F. D. Lefevre, Victor Canitello, W. A. Duncan, W. E. Lewis, F. S. Kapchinski.

PRODUCES GIANT POTATO

Carlo Scarmada, who lives two miles from Pitts Bridge near Caldwell in Burleson county, has brought to the Eagle office a sweet potato which he says weighed 20 pounds when it was dug, and that other potatoes on the same vine brought total for that vine up to 25 pounds. The potato, he said, was raised in sandy land without fertilizer. He expects to make 200 bushels per acre from the patch.

GETS DEATH PENALTY MURDER OF CHAMPION

(By Associated Press). DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 24.—Sidney Welk was found guilty on the murder of Willis Champion, night county jailer, by a jury here today and his punishment fixed at death. Champion was shot September 26 in an unsuccessful attempt to break jail.

BRYAN CEMETERY ASS. ASK THAT ALL SHARE IN CLEANING GROUNDS

At a recent meeting of the Bryan Cemetery Association the members present: George A. Adams, president, Mayor Tyler Haswell, Mrs. J. E. Astin, Mrs. John K. Parker, Mrs. Mary Carr, Mrs. Dona Carnes, Mrs. J. E. Covey and Fred L. Cavitt went on record as favoring a call to the public in general to clean up their lots in the cemetery. So much rain has caused such rapid growth of weeds and grass, that it is almost impossible for the caretakers of the cemetery to keep it in good condition without the co-operation of those who own lots. The beautifying of the cemetery is a project in which all the citizens should share with like pride and it can be accomplished only when each puts into it their part. Those who are to look after the supervising of the clean-up campaign are: New part of cemetery, Mrs. R. S. Webb and Mrs. T. R. Batte. South east—Mrs. Mary Carr and Mrs. J. E. Covey. South west—Mrs. Mable Castles and Mrs. J. Webb Howell. North west—Mrs. George M. Brandon and Mrs. Dona Carnes. North east—Mrs. John K. Parker and Mrs. J. E. Astin.

MUSIC STUDY CLUB TO MEET THURSDAYS ACCORDING CHANGE

The Bryan Music Study Club met at 3 p. m. Thursday. Mrs. W. S. Howell, president, presiding. Nine teen members were present. A change was made in the day of meeting so as to avoid a conflict with the Extension Club. Meetings of the Music Club, will hereafter be held on alternate Thursdays, beginning on the second Thursday in October. This will necessitate a meeting next Thursday.

It was decided by unanimous vote to organize a choral club. The services of Gabe Cazell have been secured as director. Federation dues were voted paid and each member was urged to report her dues at once. Mesdames O. A. Ashworth, A. L. Darnell, Roy Stone, R. W. Persons, A. S. Ware, and Misses Helen Held and Violet and Marjorie Short were elected to membership. Miss Ruth Lawler led an instructive and entertaining lesson on Bach.

ALLEN ACADEMY BOY SUSTAINS HURTS IN FALL FROM WINDOW

Gill Lewis of Thrall, Texas, an Allen Academy student, was badly hurt Thursday by falling from a second story window at the Academy to a porch while playing with some other boys. In the fall he sustained gashes on his back and abdomen. He was immediately taken to Bryan hospital where his wounds were attended to. It is considered that if he passes today without taking pneumonia from the anesthetic that was given him that he will be out of danger. His mother, Mrs. Lewis, came down Thursday to be with him.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS BACK FROM DALLAS FAIR

(From Saturday's Daily). Waldon Orr and Floyd Moore, club members of Edge, and Clyde Wilson, club member of Tabor, returned from the State Fair Friday and report a great time. Judging from the weight of the suits cases, County Agent C. L. Beason said the boys must have won a lot of "kewpies" at the Fair.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO VISIT POULTRY SHOW ON FRIDAY, LAST DAY

The majority of the school children of the county are expected to attend the Brazos County Poultry show on Friday, December 7, the last of the three days the show will hold, said V. J. Boriskie, superintendent of the show, today after a conference with Superintendent D. J. McDonald. Mr. McDonald, he said, will request all teachers of the county to bring in their pupils on Friday afternoon, late, so that they can see the birds on exhibit at the show.

Seven hundred or more birds will probably be on exhibit, Mr. Boriskie said. There will be money prizes for all exhibitors except professionals. For them there will be only ribbons. Catalogs of the show are ready, the superintendent announced, and prospective exhibitors may get copies on request.

DELPHIAN CLUB MET IN REGULAR SESSION FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Members of the Bryan Delphian Society found their regular program Friday afternoon exceptionally interesting and enjoyable. In general theme it furnished a connecting link between European and Asiatic civilization; and events in Bible history familiar to all, were given definite connection with the development of our present day civilization.

A collection of clay tablets secured by recent excavation at Babylon proved to be very interesting both in appearance and in text of the message they bore. This exhibit was secured by Mrs. M. Francis through courtesy of Dr. O. M. Ball of College Station.

The program, under the title of "The Medo-Persian Empire" was conducted by Mrs. J. H. Allen, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Wetter, Mrs. F. D. Fuller, Mrs. Gabe Cazell, Miss Annie Dearing, Mrs. Henry Locke, Mrs. S. E. Eberstadt and Mrs. E. E. McAdams. The general discussion was prompted by the statement "Trade has always exceeded all other factors as a civilizing force," and called forth many interesting opinions and observations. The Society was pleased to welcome three new members, Mrs. David Reid, Mrs. Langdon Spell and Mrs. Lamar Jones. Mrs. B. O. Mitchell a member of Eastland chapter expressed her pleasure in being present as a visitor to Bryan chapter.

The next regular meeting will be held November 2nd, with Mrs. F. D. Fuller as leader, subject, "Palestine and the Hebrew." All leaders for remaining programs will be announced at this meeting. Members are reminded that regular meetings occur on first and third Fridays of each month. With the first year's work about one-half complete a splendid interest is evident; and the future achievements of the Society are limited only by the perseverance of its members.

LIQUOR RULING IS DISTINCT SURPRISE

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 19.—The ruling by the Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday that there is nothing in the Dean liquor law making it penal or fixing punishment for manufacturing or transporting intoxicating liquor for medicinal purposes and that no permit is required for such manufacture or transportation evidently came as a surprise to State prosecuting officers. Already requests have come from District Attorneys to the clerk of the court for full copies of the opinion.

District Attorney Shelby Cox of Dallas was the first to make such request. Statements are made that under the ruling of the higher court it will be more difficult in the future to secure convictions in cases where violations of the liquor laws are charged.

Mrs. W. C. Vanderwerth and little daughter, Lila Lee, are spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stallings in the Tabor community.

BITTER CONTEST OKLAHOMA HOUSE OVER WHO PAID SESSION EXPENSE

Representative Callahan, Walton Supporter, Originates Inquiry as to Whether Ku Klux Klan Financed Attempted Special Session Thwarted by Military Forces of Gov. Walton.

(By Associated Press). OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 24.—The bitterest fight since the convening of the special session broke on the floor of the house today when Representative Callahan, democrat of Latimer county, introduced a resolution for an investigation to determine who paid the expenses of the house members when they attempted to convene September 26 and were dispersed by military authorities upon orders of Governor Walton. Callahan is a Walton supporter. The resolution was adopted after a brief, but acrimonious debate and referred to the committee on investigation of the conduct of house members. The resolution sought especially an inquiry to determine whether the Ku Klux Klan or certain "interests" in Tulsa contributed funds for the attempted session.

DR. EVANS WOULD HAVE NATION SELECT IMMIGRANTS WANTED

(By Associated Press). DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 24.—Dr. W. H. Evans, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, in his speech here today recommended that the United States revise its policy so as to make its own selection of the class of immigrants wanted, then invite them while excluding all not invited. Evans came here with his staff for Klan Day at the State Fair. "Our cause is true Americanism," Evans said, and declared certain requirements to be met "for our citizenship" naming education, health and home building. He prophesied that the Klan would "never shield the sword until all was overwhelmingly American." He said, "We have three powerful and numerous elements that do now and forever will defy every fundamental requirement for assimilation," which he said were the negro, Jew and Catholic.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Smith of Millican were visitors in Bryan today.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION MAKES ADDITIONAL LOANS

A regular meeting of the Bryan Building and Loan Association was held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday at 4 p. m., with the following present: President W. H. Cole, Wilson Bradley, H. O. Boatwright, J. B. Bagley, A. H. Leidigh, and Secretary-Treasurer S. E. Eberstadt. Four loans totalling about $14,000 were made. According to Secretary Eberstadt, there are on file 12 or 14 applications for loans which will be considered in their regular order. Of the 300 subscribers, the secretary said, there is only one delinquent. All stock holders are paying up their dues and interest promptly, he continued. About $6,400 is coming in per month and the money is being loaned out as rapidly as received, the secretary said.

AUCTION AT LEONARD SCHOOL
County Agent C. L. Beason and Secretary S. E. Eberstadt will attend the meeting at the Leonard school Thursday night to conduct the auction at the box supper. Mrs. P. A. Tardy is the teacher. The public is cordially invited to the affair.

STEEP HOLLOW MAKING READY FOR NOVEMBER OLD SETTLERS REUNION

Former residents of Steep Hollow community are anxiously looking forward to the Old Settlers Reunion that is to be held November 11th under the auspices of the Steep Hollow Cemetery Association. It will be one of those rare occasions when old friends can meet together and live over the happy days of their childhood and youth, and compare notes on their lives since they told their friends in this little country community farewell and went out to seek their fortunes in other parts of the world.

The Steep Hollow Cemetery Association has accomplished wonders. Originally organized for the purpose of improving and beautifying the last resting place of the loved ones of its membership, the Association has served a valuable end that few anticipated in the beginning.

Lost Friends Located.
In its endeavor to identify all the graves in the cemetery and ascertain the wishes of those who had relatives and friends buried there, the Association has located hundreds of former residents whose present residence has been unknown to their friends for years. The secretary of the Association, Miss Laura Mims, and treasurer, T. P. Hall, are very much gratified with the ready response they have received to their letters. In every instance the replies have showed the interest the writers have in the community that was formerly their home and the friends they have left behind.

Members of the Association feel that their annual meeting on November 11th offers an excellent opportunity for holding a home coming of all former residents and invitations have been sent to all whose addresses have been obtained. A suitable program will be rendered and the Cemetery Association officers will make their annual report.

In Good Condition.
The report of the Association will be an excellent one. Evidences of the efficient way in which the dues of the membership have been spent may be seen by those who are present November 11th. The cemetery has been enclosed in a strong hog-proof fence. Grass and weeds are a rarity as the ground and graves have been thoroughly plowed and hoed four times during the year. Old shade trees have been trimmed and made attractive. A large number of young trees have been planted and watered during the summer to insure their growth.

Plans are under way to plot the entire cemetery and mark with identification stones all unmarked graves. Attractive walks and drives are also being developed to make all parts of the cemetery accessible. In issuing their invitation to be present November 11th the people of Steep Hollow are not confining themselves to old residents alone. Everybody is invited to come and bring a well filled basket as dinner will be served on the ground.

BLACKSMITH'S FOUR SONS ALL COLLEGE GRADUATES

One of the most interested auditors in the crowd that Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the A. and M. College, spoke to in McKinney, on the last day of the county fair, was J. S. (Scotty) Forsyth, the widely known McKinney blacksmith. Scotty is a firm believer in education from the primary grades to the higher institutions and universities. He is the father of four fine, manly boys, each of whom are graduates of the Texas A. and M. College. These young men have gone out in life and are achieving success because they were prepared to meet the issues of life successfully in home training, in the school room and in a practical college education. Dr. Bizzell, in his introductory remarks, referred with pleasure to the presence of Scotty Forsyth in his audience, whom he had just greeted and conversed with. The A. and M. College has helped hundreds of Texas boys to prepare for the battle of life with practical educational equipment. Dr. Bizzell is a competent, worthy head of that great institution now that has more than two thousand students in it.

Scotty Forsyth's life shows that he believes in educating boys and giving them college training. Scotty is not a rich man in this world's goods. But he has given the world four stalwart, manly, capable young men whose minds, hands and hearts have all symmetrically been trained to accomplish things worth while. They are usefully serving their day and generation. Isn't this better after all than if Scotty had given his boys only a legacy of money, stock, bonds or land with an incomplete education of no college training at all, based upon the right kind of home training and parental example?—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

KEEPING UP COURAGE

After the Sooner game the great classic of the year for the Southwestern conference comes on Thanksgiving Day. On Kyle Field, the proud Texas Aggies will defend themselves against the goring assault of the Longhorns. Great is the boast of the Farmers that never have they tasted defeat at the hands of the Orange and White warriors on Kyle Field. Equally as great will be their surprise this Thanksgiving Day when they discover that their boast is a thing of the past. But it is inevitable. Their defeat is sure. "Doc Coue" Stewart is seeing to that.—A. W. Van Struve, in Austin American.

Did you ever see a small boy as he slipped home in the gathering gloom of evening whistling to keep up his courage? That is what we were reminded of when we read the foregoing attempt at putting up a front. Doc Stewart may "Coue" the Longhorn squad into believing they will defeat the Aggies on Kyle Field this year, but he will succeed in convincing few others and certainly not the Aggie squad.

CHRIST IN MAN

Dr. George W. Truett, famous Baptist preacher and pulpit orator of Texas, returned from Europe and the Holy Land with this message, "Christ in man works all reform. Christ gives a new motive. A man misrepresents Christ when he draws race distinctions and caste and class divisions in religious teachings anywhere. I am for any league of the nations which will bring together the great men of the country and settle international affairs."

"Christ is the only way. Through Him the wars can cease. We are bound together in one life on Christ. Through Him we will fill the need which confronts us in our home, our state, our nation and the world." A noble message. It should ring around the world.—Waco News-Tribune.

TIRED FEELING SURE SIGN OF TORPID LIVER

Touch Up Liver Tonight With Pepsinated Calomel—Tired Feeling and Biliousness Will Be Gone By Morning.

Nothing kicks back so quickly as a disordered liver. Pepsinated Calomel will give quick relief by thoroughly stimulating both the liver and kidneys, thus eliminating the poisons that are doing so much damage.

Calomel is recognized as practically the only medicine that will reach the liver. Others may relieve constipation, but they fail to touch the real cause of the trouble. However, ordinary calomel is so drastic in its action that many have deprived themselves of its liver cleansing power until they became acquainted with Pepsinated Calomel, which is not ordinary calomel. Because of its fine English Calomel it cleanses the liver thoroughly with no discomfort. It cannot nauseate or gripe.

M. H. James Dr. Co., and all reliable druggists recommend Pepsinated Calomel to bring relief between sundown and sunup or your money refunded. Try it—we guarantee you'll feel better tomorrow. (Adv.)

CITY MANAGER FORM BEST

Somewhat after the time Denton adopted the city manager form of government, Bryan, another Texas town of about the same size, emulated that good example. Bryan, however, differently from Denton, has kept the city manager form and this from the Bryan Eagle is of interest as giving the results:

From the eighth year book of the City Manager Association published in September, 1922, we take the following: "Bryan, Texas, population 6,307, adopted City Manager form in 1917, manager E. E. McAdams: 'The City of Bryan not only held expenditures below estimates during the past year but retired $30,000 worth of its bonds, half of which were utility bonds which were paid out of earnings from the municipal power, light and water plants. About one mile of mains were laid, also out of utility earnings. Ten miles of dirt street were graded and culverts put to take care of drainage. The people voted $67,000 in paving and school bonds.'

There are powerful objections to the city manager form; opponents claim it is fundamentally against democratic principles. Politically that may be so. But the fact remains that it is beyond all questions the most efficient system yet evolved in handling municipal affairs; and there are hundreds of cities throughout the country that, after thorough investigation, have accepted the plan as the best calculated to promote efficiency and economy and eliminate politics in municipal administration.—Will C. Edwards, in Denton Record-Chronicle.

MY KIND OF A CREED

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cherishing words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them; the kind things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them.

If my friends have alabaster boxes laid away, full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them into my weary and troubled hours, and open them, that I may be cheered by them, while I need them. I would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without a eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anoint our friends beforehand for their burial. Post-mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary way.—Author Unknown.

TEXAS AND NATURAL GAS

Texas ranks seventh among the States of the Union in the production of natural gas and natural gas consumption now exceeds fifty-one billion cubic feet per annum, and the total number of consumers are 117,843 domestic and 1,509 industrial. Over 70 per cent of the natural gas consumed in Texas is utilized in the production of electric power. It may interest the consumer to be told that the average cost of natural gas per 1,000 cubic feet is 26 cents, while manufactured gas costs approximately $1. Some day the supply of natural gas may be exhausted and then the gas consumers of today will find themselves face to face with a knotty problem which Henry Ford would solve by harnessing the waterways of America.—Waco News-Tribune.

CROWDED COLLEGES

(From Houston Post)
From Columbia university with its 30,000 students down to the smallest academy in the remote country town, college and university enrollments for the fall term are breaking all previous records. Everywhere these institutions are overtaxed to accommodate students seeking admission. The condition reflects the widespread appreciation among the youth of the country of the value of technical and higher education. It is cause for gratification to all those who base their hope for the future security and progress of the nation upon popular education. Educational institutions are not self-supporting, however. Usually the larger the number of students, the larger the amount of outside aid the institution requires. State institutions require increased appropriations from legislature, and non-tax supported institutions must have donations or increased endowments to expand along with the increase in the student body.

A notable increase in endowments has been achieved by many of the larger universities of the country during the past two or three years. But there are others still struggling with the problem of how to provide enough teachers and sufficient facilities for their additional students. Philanthropy can find no more fruitful field for investment today than in the trained minds of the nation's youth. Those who decide to pass back to the people some of the benefits they have accumulated in successful dealing with the people, or in exploiting natural resource of the country, should study their opportunities for service in the world of higher education.

He who plays with dollars in his youth will have to beg for farthings in his old age.—Hne.

It is great cleverness to know how to conceal our cleverness.—Rouche-foucauld.

No man ever became great or good except through many and great mistakes.—Gladstone.

What promises to be the most interesting football game played in the Southwest Conference this week will be the crash between the Southern Methodist University Mustangs and the Texas Aggies at Kyle Field, College Station, Texas, Friday at 3 p. m. This contest marks the fifth meeting of the two teams. The Aggies have won four contests and lost one. This game will also be the first played between the two teams at Kyle Field. Both elevens are contenders for the title of the Southwest Conference and barring a tie score one or the other will be counted out of the race at the close of the game Friday. This year the Mustangs present one of the most formidable elevens in the Southwest. They are ably coached by Morrison and Freeland, both Vanderbilt men and both have had years of successful experience in the coaching game.

The Mustangs present almost a veteran eleven, returning fourteen letter men and to this number there are added some ten or twelve high school stars of their freshman team of last year. In Stollenwerk the Mustangs have one of the best backs in the conference. He is fast, elusive and aggressive, and is considered the most dangerous triple threat man in the conference. He is ably assisted by Reisor, Walling and Rawson in the backfield which in itself presents one of the most brilliant offensive backfields in the conference. In the line Captain Wilton Daniels together with Bishop, Baird and others will lead the attack.

The Mustangs have to date played three games, winning all of them. They opened their season by a win of 53 to 0 over the North Texas Teachers College of Denton, then defeated Austin College eleven by a score of 10 to 3 in a hard fought battle. On October 16 the Mustangs really hit their stride when they run rough shod over the heavy Rolla School of Mines to the tune of 35 to 0. The Mustangs have in all games showed wonderful offensive power and with their ten day rest are primed for the Aggies.

This game marks the first conference contest for both elevens and if the Aggies expect to remain in the race for the flag they must turn the Mustangs back. Dana Bible and his warriors returned from Baton Rouge Sunday at noon after a rather easy victory over the Louisiana Tigers by a score of 28 to 0. No one was injured in this contest and barring injuries during the week the Aggies will present their full strength against the Mustangs Friday. The game will be called at 3 p. m. and tickets may be secured at the Athletic Office, College Station, Texas.

Dallas View Point.

The Mustangs stake their chances for the Southwestern title on Friday's game at College Station, when two undefeated teams meet. Here the odds will favor the Aggies and the Mustangs will be playing on a foreign field. If the squad under Morrison and Freeland can succeed in beating Bible's men or playing a conference field, there must be more figuring on conference fields.

S. M. U. has an ace in the hole in the fact that Stollenwerk this year has never yet played the game of which he is capable. He was one of the best running halves in the conference last year and a power at punting. He was the sensation of the A. and M. game at the stadium, and the chief factor in the victory. If the Mustangs Friday find Stollenwerk at last at top speed with the formidable line in front of him and the ability of Walling, Visor and Reisor as backs to be considered, anything may happen.—William S. Ruggles, Dallas News.

DARWIN AND THE MULE

Bearing the apparent stamp of authority, of the newly created department of genetics at Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, with a roster of notable professors and savants to back up the story, an announcement is made in newspapers under a Bryan date line that a twenty-two-year-old mule mare has foaled a colt, sired by an eighteen-year-old, show stallion owned by the College. Nothing since the much discussed "mulberry cotton" cross has caused such a sensation in breeding circles as this remarkable occurrence which is said to have been conducted under official supervision of Prof. W. L. Stangel of the animal husbandry department, with Dean E. J. Kyle in general charge of the experiment and with Dr. E. P. Humbert, geneticist, as observer. Drs. Mark Francis and R. P. Marsteller, noted veterinarians, also are credited with being convinced of the authenticity of the achievement.

It is needless to say that the world of science awaits a full explanation of what actually took place, since the story asserts that the mule's proclivity is at variance with the laws laid down by the great Darwin himself. It is possible that the scientific law which enabled the "mulberry cotton" to keep its true cotton nature without any evident influence of the mulberry root to which it was grafted has enabled the horse colt, alleged to have been foaled by the mare, to keep the equine character of its sire without any trace of its mother, the mule? At any rate the story is amazing enough to warrant an investigation to determine whether so-called laws of breeding, believed to be inviolable, are real laws or merely convenient loopholes through which occasional real scientific knowledge slips.

Now that onslaughts by men antagonistic to science are made almost daily, it is of first importance to make sure of the field of science and its laws. If such happening as a colt born of a mule are established facts, is it not time to revise what have been believed to be immutable laws?—Dallas News.

TEXAS AGGIES GIVE TIGERS FIRST TASTE OF DEFEAT FOR YEAR

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 22.—About five thousand spectators Saturday saw Dana Bible's Texas Aggies, with whom he hopes to win the Southwestern Conference championship, swoop down on State Field and play havoc with Mike Donahue's heretofore unbeaten Tigers. When the smoke cleared the Aggies walked off the field with a 28 to 0 victory. It was the first defeat of the season for the Tigers, and an expensive one at that, for Steele, right tackle, suffered a broken collar bone in the third quarter.

Breaking through the Texas defense was something beyond the ability of the Tigers. For three periods it seemed impossible to gain through an impregnable line, in which Captain Bull Johnson, Dubois, Forgason and Dansby played a prominent part. It was not until the fourth quarter that the Tigers' offense could be worked to advantage and then it was through the aerial attack, short passes from Kiser to Edmonston, that kept the ball mostly in the Aggies' territory. Texas was well fortified to meet the Tigers using practically two teams. In the second period Coach Bible made one change sending ten men in as substitutes at one time. He did the same thing again in the fourth quarter.

Neely, Fay Wilson and Poth starred on the defensive for the Aggies, breaking through time after time for long gains. The Tigers, fighting with their backs to the wall, held the Aggies for downs twice in the first period when their goal line was threatened.

Two poor kickoffs gave the Aggies an advantage which counted strongly against the Tigers. Bourgeois, Steele, Ewen, McCall and Stevens played a good defensive game for the Tigers, but stopping the fleet-footed Neely and also Fay Wilson, who made their gains behind great interference, was seemingly impossible.

The Aggies scored their first touchdown three minutes after play began. They won the toss and chose to receive, defending the north goal. Abraham made a ball back to the Texas 35-yard line. Neely and Fay Wilson carried the ball to the Tigers' 30-yard line, where they encountered a stone wall and lost the ball on downs.

But Stevens fumbled on the first play and Texas recovered. Again the Tigers held for downs. Jackson took 8 yards off left tackle on two plays, then Stevens punted 20 yards out of bounds. In a series of line plays over left guard Neely and Wilson brought the ball to the Tigers' 30-yard line, from where Fay Wilson went over left guard for the first touchdown of the game. Knickerbocker kicked goal.

After seasawing up and down the field for several minutes in the second period of play Neely made several long runs over left guard for the Aggies, and, aided by Wilson and Gill, brought the ball to within striking distance again. Fay Wilson skirted right end for 8 yards and the second touchdown. Knickerbocker kicked goal, making the score Aggies 14, L. S. U. 0.

Another poor kickoff of 15 yards handicapped the Tigers at the opening of the third quarter. After an exchange of punts Stevens punted to Knickerbocker. Then the Aggies opened up a passing attack, completing a 35-yard pass from Fay Wilson to T. F. Wilson for the third touchdown. Forgason kicked goal. McCall kicked off 50 yards, but a series of brilliant off tackle plays and end runs by Neely and Fay Wilson brought the ball back to the Tigers 12-yard line. Neely circled left end for the fourth touchdown. Forgason kicked goal. The ball was in the Tigers' possession most of the fourth quarter.

OAK CLIFF HI RUNS AWAY WITH BRYAN HI

DALLAS, Oct. 20.—The Dallas Oak Cliff high school team defeated the Bryan, Texas, high club here Friday morning by a score of 67-0. The boys from Brazos county were outclassed all the way, and never had a look-in.

BRYAN VIEWPOINT

Outplayed and outweighed Bryan High lost to the Oak Cliff team of Dallas Friday by an overwhelming score of 67 to 0. Oak Cliff had a veteran team, the majority of them being with the famous "21" team which played the locals for final championship that year and with the additional two years experience entirely outclassed the 1921 Bryan team.

King, Lynch and Capt. Higgins were the outstanding stars of the Dallas team while every man playing for Bryan contested every yard of the ground lost and gave the 3,000 spectators a magnificent display of gameness. Many Oak Cliff spectators remarked that the 1921 Bryan team was a far more finished and better team but that they had nothing on the present eleven in individual fight. The locals when they realized that they were hopelessly outclassed completed several beautiful passes but were kept on defense throughout the game.

TRUE PRAYER SUPPORTED BY FAITH BRINGS THAT WHICH IS ASKED FOR

Rev. W. N. Sholl Sunday delivered in the Presbyterian church a sermon which was an analysis of the nature of prayer. His text was: "And he said unto them which of you shall have a friend and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him: And he from within shall answer and say 'Trouble me not, the door is now shut, my children are with me in bed: I cannot rise and give thee.' I say unto you though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend yet because of his importunity he will arise and give him as many as he needeth." Luke 11:5-8.

Many of the world's great men, have become distinguished for their prayerfulness. Abraham, Moses, Paul, Augustine, St. Francis, Martin Luther, John Knox, Ferdinand Foch, Stonewall Jackson, Ferdinand Foch, all belong to this splendid company. But above all men who ever lived Christ was pre-eminently a man of prayer. His disciples were so wonderfully impressed with their Master's prayer life, and so keenly conscious of the meagreness of their own, that on one occasion they asked him "Lord teach us to pray." The above parable is a part of our Lord's prayer.

Prayer Voices Needs.

Prayer is the expressed realization of a keen sense of need. One of the greatest of all failures in the East is to fail in hospitality. But the man suddenly called on to provide entertainment had no sufficient resources of his own to meet the situation. He had to resort to resources beyond his own. Such is the realization of those who are led to pray. Often as in this case, it is the unexpected and extraordinary that drives men to prayer. The sudden realization of new and great responsibilities, unlooked for sorrow, or the approach of death. Hume on his death bed cried out "Oh God, if there be a God, have mercy on my soul, if I have a soul." Tom Paine in his last hours exclaimed: "Oh Jesus, Jesus, have mercy." But surely those who are driven to God only by emergency miss real glory and beauty of life. Daily it should be borne in upon us that should the world yield us its very best, there is positive need for a help that nothing human can ever give us, that there is within us an infinite that only the infinite can match and supply.

Prayer Involves Faith.

True prayer involves faith in Him whom we look upon as our helper. The supplicant here pictured realized that under his own roof there was no provision to meet the extraordinary situation brought about by the arrival of the stranger, but there was the utmost confidence in the ability and willingness of his neighbor to help him. Have we as Christians the same faith in God's ability, who can do for us exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think? Have we faith in God's willingness? "If the impudence of that midnight knocker prevailed even with an annoyed and angry man so much that he arose and gave what was requested, how much more will the believing prayer of a true child of God prevail with the infinitely kind and loving Father to whom he makes petition."

Persistence in Prayer.

The importance of importunity in prayer is clear. The supplicant at first found difficulty in gaining the object of his request. But the situation was too urgent. The needs in his home too pronounced to admit of failure. Let the very outset of his venture he was met with the acid test of the power to persevere in the facing of seeming defeat, and he was splendidly equal to the occasion. Importunity according to some one consists of three elements, perseverance, determination and intensity. All three of these elements were wonderfully blended in the supplicants midnight venture. We find another illustration of this in the wrestling of Jacob and the Angel. First, perseverance: It was an all night prayer. There wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. Then determination: "I will not let thee go until thou bless me". Then intensity: "There wrestled a man with him" The whole man went into the struggle. We need not expect very great victories until we can pray like this.

The Rewards of Prayer.

Because of his importunity he will arise and give him as many as he needeth. Such prayer as here illustrated is not a barren empty thing, it gets results. In answer to importunate prayer "God supplies all our needs according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus". For our own use he supplies all material needs. In a wonderful way He meets our spiritual needs, such as the forgiveness of sin, peace in the heart, the keeping and sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit, and the glorious hope of an eternal home in Heaven, and then as in the case of the midnight supplicant we are given all that we need to bless and help others. The power of spiritual influence we can never have until we take God's abundance into our own souls.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

BRAZOS COUNTY DID IT—NOT BRAZORIA COUNTY

In speaking editorially, the Southwestern Swine, Dairy and Poultry Journal states, under the heading, "Illinois the Gainer," "Six chicken raisers of Brazoria county recently united in sending a car load of standard bred White Leghorn chickens to the Great Eight Poultry Farm at Carlisle, Illinois, to be used as foundation stock. The value of the car load for $12,000, at an average of $2 each, and the cost of raising them is said to have been 67 cents. It seems to be like 'carry coals to Newcastle' to send standard bred chickens to Illinois for foundation stock, but the owners of the Great Eight Poultry Farm were formerly A. and M. College men and became acquainted with the operations of the Bryan chick hatchery, while attending that institution, and knowing something of the merits of the birds raised there. F. W. Kazmier, C. M. Evans, D. D. White, Mrs. J. L. Broach, W. M. Jones and A. D. Jackson are the pioneers in car lot shipments of standard bred poultry from Texas. Texas has several chick hatcheries that send newly hatched chicks of standard breed to all parts of the country, but this is the first occasion we have noticed on which a full car load has been made at one shipment. These Leghorns will help out Illinois on the map as a chicken raising state." We thank you, Mr. Editor, for this bit of splendid publicity, but please get your record straight: Brazos county, the coming great poultry center, did it and not Brazoria county. There is a similarity in the names of the two counties, but none when it comes to comparing things like chickens.

Two Eggs a Day.

Poultry experimentation has been carried to such a point at the West Virginia University Experiment Station that a hen has been produced that is capable of laying two eggs a day, that is, if her reproductive organs function every day. As it is, the hen has two sets of organs, one furnishing long and narrow eggs, the other eggs of the natural oval shape. For two or three days the hen yields one sort, and for a few days exudes the other kind. Egg sharps are of the opinion that hens can be bred with double reproductive organs and then it will be possible to have a type of chicken that will lay an egg every day in the year, or even two eggs a day. We will take our straight up, please. —Southwest Swine, Dairy and Poultry Journal.

Balanced Ration for Eggs.

Some days ago a farmer was observed to be taking away from a feed store a sack of bran and a sack of corn chops. When questioned as to what he meant to feed with such ration, he replied that he was getting it for poultry feed. It was then suggested that the ration he had contained no meat scraps, or nitrogenous nutrient, an essential in egg production. Farmers' Bulletin 1067, U. S. Department of Agriculture, says "A balanced egg-laying ration is a combination of feeds which furnish just the necessary amount of nutrients (protein, nitrogen-free extract, and fat) to produce the highest and most economical egg yield. Protein is a nitrogenous nutrient which supplies material for body structure, while nitrogen-free extract consists of the starches and sugars and supplies heat, energy, and fat. Feeds used primarily to supply protein are meat scraps, fish meal, cottonseed meal, and milk products. Feeds especially high in nitrogen-free extract are corn, wheat, oats and their by-products."

The farmer referred to complained that his hens were not laying, and two weeks later the flock was observed to be in the same unprofitable condition. Following is egg-ration used with good results by the Government experimental farm at Beltsville, Maryland.

Mash: 16 pounds of corn meal, 6 1/2 pounds of meat scraps, 1 pound bran, 1 pound middlings.

Scratch Mixture: 1 pound cracked corn, 1 pound wheat, 1 pound oats.

This is only one of the many egg-laying rations that might be provided, but we are losing a great deal by not using that which will bring results.

Essential to Profit.

Farmers' Bulletin 1040 gives the following nine essential features for profitable poultry keeping: 1. Keep better poultry. Standard bred poultry increases production and improves the quality. 2. Select vigorous breeders. Healthy, vigorous breeders produce strong chicks. 3. Hatch the chicks early. Early hatched pullets produce fall and winter eggs. 4. Preserve eggs for home use. Preserve when cheap for use when high in price. 5. Produce fertile eggs. They keep better. Fertile eggs are necessary for hatching.

HEALTH NURSE READY TO TAKE UP DUTIES FOLLOWING MEETING

(From Tuesday's Daily.) The County Health Board met at 10:30 o'clock this morning in the office of Judge H. O. Ferguson at the Court House to lay plans for the work which Miss Elizabeth Curtis, newly-arrived health nurse, is to do in the county. The first action was to make arrangements for an office. The second room to the left as one goes in from the west side of the Court House was secured. Arrangements for the equipping of this room as an office were made. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to the discussion of the work and the disposal of routine matters.

Miss Curtis comes from Oneonta, N. Y., but arrives in Bryan directly from Austin, where she went to study the status of health work in Texas and to get a grip of the situation generally. It is her plan, she said, to weigh and measure and otherwise look into the general health of every child in the schools of Brazos county this year. At a later date she will establish a clinic at her office. She will keep designated office hours so that persons needing her services may know when and where to find her. After a time she will be prepared to give advice on prenatal matters but the demands on her time will preclude the possibility of her doing bedside nursing, according to Mrs. Tyler Haswell, a member of the board.

Persons present at the meeting this morning were: Mrs. E. H. P. Bain, Mrs. H. B. McDowell, Mrs. J. L. Brook, Mrs. Tyler Haswell, Mrs. A. H. Leigh, Mrs. S. C. Williams, Judge H. O. Ferguson and Miss Elizabeth Curtis.

(From Tuesday's Daily.) Directors of the Bryan-College Traction Company met Monday night to consider bids made on the construction of the depot to be placed at the College end of the line where the line abuts the main College driveway. No award was made but after the bids had been opened and considered for a time a committee was appointed to make the decision and supervise the building. The exact nature of the building has not been determined but Eugene Edge, president of the corporation, seems to think it will be covered with stucco. The plan is to make the building capable of properly taking care of passengers in bad weather.

To Buy More Rails.

The manager, Todd R. White, was authorized to buy enough rails to put the road in first class condition, according to Mr. Edge. Many of the inferior ties have been replaced with good ones and the work will be continued until only good ties are in use he asserted. The bridges have been replaced and now afford the smoothest riding on the route. Mr. Edge expressed the wish that folks could set their watches by the departure of the cars. The delay in putting in the crossing at the junction with the I.-G. N. on the College campus, he said, was caused by the failure of the railway to send an engineer here to determine the exact angle of the crossing. This engineer is expected to arrive not later than Friday. An order will immediately thereafter be placed for the crossing. Mr. Edge said, and the work of completing the line to the depot pushed to completion.

The first game on this schedule is with Hillsboro at Marlin on October 26. The second will be with Waco at Bryan on November 2. All dates of games in Bryan have been arranged so as not to conflict with any game of A. and M. Allen Academy or the Bryan High School for whites, said Dr. Thompson, the idea being to permit white friends to see as many games of negro high school as they wish. Officers of the Athletic Commission which has set out to provide financial support to the colored team are: Ed Scott, chairman; E. T. Pierce, vice chairman; Ernest Cass, secretary, and Dr. A. E. ## HIGHWAY DESIGNATION NOT YET CONSIDERED BY HIGHWAY COMMISS.

(From Thursday's Daily). In a communication to the State Highway Commission it was stated that no change in the redesignation of Highway No. 45 had been made but that it still stands as redesignated at a recent meeting. This highway is now designated passes through Huntsville, Navasota, Shiro and Brenham. The communication also stated that the Highway Commission would pass on the Bryan side of the question as presented to the Commission by the committee representing the Chamber of Commerce at a later date.

AS NAVASOTA SEES IT

(Navasota Examiner) The redesignation of the Austin-Huntsville Highway to pass through Brenham, Navasota and Shiro, which redesignation was recently made by the State Highway Commission at Austin Monday, at which time a hearing on the matter was granted the Bryan Chamber of Commerce so that those favoring the old route by way of Bryan could present their side of the question to the commission.

A large delegation from places along the old route was present at the hearing among whom were the following: Dr. W. B. Bizzell, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, Dave Wilson and Sam Eberstadt, representing Bryan; R. P. Harrison and N. M. Adams representing Beldias, and State Senator Bowers representing Caldwell. Representatives of towns along the new route who were present at the hearing included a committee from the local Chamber of Commerce, headed by R. L. Renick and City Engineer Brule, all of this city; Judge B. F. Teague of Brenham, and P. B. Parton and V. F. Rea, of Shiro.

After hearing the delegation who came to represent the old routing of the highway, T. H. Mackie, acting as spokesman for the delegation from here called the attention of the Commission to the fact that since the redesignation of the road, contracts have been let for the improvement of the part of the new road, money has been voted for the improvement of other parts and an election ordered to vote money for the remainder of the new route. The making of this new highway into an improved highway throughout most of its course is already assured and steps are already being taken to improve the balance of the road.

The decision of the commission was to let the routing of this highway remain just as it was set at their recent meeting, which means that it will not be moved from Navasota at the present time. There seems to be little doubt that the fact that people along this route are taking active steps to improve their new road had considerable influence with the Commission in causing them to leave the route as it is at the present time.
